

History Recognise what Horton Kirby was like in the past Recognise how Horton Kirby has changed over time	Geography Identify where Kent is and name the surrounding counties Identify and name the towns in Kent Recognise the human and physical geography of Horton Kirby and compare to Dartford. Name the rivers in the Horton Kirby Recognise what maps, aerials photos and digital maps tell us about Horton Kirby. Create a digital map following a school trip Undertake field work to develop an understanding of Horton Kirby	Writing Recount of school trip to Horton Kirby Write a mystery story focussed on building suspense Write a setting description Write a travel brochure for Horton Kirby Texts Ottoline and the Yellow Cat by Chris Riddell A range of non-fiction books linked to topic work
Computing Begin to use Scratch and understand how to input a sequence of short instructions, play a game on Scratch. Use digital mapping to locate and annotate features of Horton Kirby and Dartford. Online Safety: Use key words to make accurate online searches	Swallows Term: 4 Topic title: Location, location, location! Dartford, Kent and Beyond! 	Maths Develop multiplication and division strategies and solve problems Recognise the properties of 2D shapes and recognise parallel and perpendicular line. Deepen understanding of fractions.
SMSC Jigsaw - Healthy Me Recognise the importance of exercise, take part in fitness challenges, identify food groups, keeping safe online and offline Looking at the role of the council and how we seek to improve and sustain our environment RE- Theme: Easter. Key Question: What is 'good' about Good Friday?	Dance/Drama/Music/PE: Dance-Travelling Charanga Unit: The Dragon Song	Home Learning opportunities At home children can: • Suggest ways to improve their local area • Research and create an information poster about a major town in Kent • Create a collage that celebrates the important landmarks of London
Art: Developing sketching and use cross hatching to complete a sketch in the style of Chris Riddell.	DT: Designing and making Mother's Day Cards.	Offsite visits/visitors Visit to Horton Kirby