

Science (Staying Alive) Identify and name the main parts of the human circulatory system. Describe the functions of the heart, blood vessels and blood. Understand how the digestive system works. Understand the impact of diet, exercise, drugs and lifestyle on the body. Describe ways in which nutrients and water are transported within humans and animals.	Geography Identify key or important people in Ancient Egypt. Create a timeline of key events and place the Egyptians on a timeline. Describe changes during the Ancient Egyptian periods. Compare Ancient Egypt to Egypt today. Analysis artefacts and their importance. Use a range of sources to carry out research. Examine the Ancient Egyptian period, identifying contrasts with and influences on British society at the time History Identify the effect humans and tourism have on a place. Identify the human and physical features of Egypt. Understand the use and importance of the Nile.	Writing Writing a non-chronological text about modern day Egypt. Creating Nile river poetry Writing a diary entry for Howard Carter Producing a newspaper article linked to the discovery of the tomb. Interviewing Howard Carter. Writing a setting description of the tomb. Creating a formal balanced argument about displaying Egyptian artefacts. Writing an explanation text about mummification. Character description from a book Texts The Red Pyramid - Rick Riordan A range of non-fiction texts linked to Ancient Egypt
Computing Researching and creating podcasts; look at existing podcasts then researching and recording their own. Creating Excel spreadsheets that can add totals, find the difference etc. Online Safety: Online stereotypes of boys and girls. Strengthening understanding of safe communication online.	Eagles Terms: 4/5 Topic title: Ancient Egypt 	Maths Investigating nets and their properties. Egyptian measuring task - what units of measure they used. Using algebra within Excel for computing In maths we will be learning about: measures including time, 2D and 3D shape, ratio and proportion, fractions
SMSC Jigsaw - Healthy Me & Relationships Understanding how to make healthy life choices and how this can affect my body. Maintaining healthy friendships and learning how to resolve conflicts effectively. RE- Theme: Easter, Key Question: Is Christianity still a strong religion 2000 years after Jesus was on Earth?	Dance/Drama/Music/PE: Using drama and tone when recording podcasts. Charanga Unit - You've got a friend - Music and me	Home Learning opportunities At home children can: • Researching specific areas e.g. mummification • Making tea-stained paper • Creating their own Egyptian God
Art: Use a range of media to draw Tutankhamun. Work together to create a tomb wall painting. Use perspective to draw pyramids.	DT: Using pulleys and levers to recreate an Egyptian Shaduf	Offsite visits/visitors Kent Life visit, Mr Clinch in for a talk